BENNINGTON BRIEFS

News of the Town and Village Told
Briefly for Busy Readers

Miss Ella Murray of Gage street will spend Sunday with Miss Mayme Donnelly in Rutland.

Mae Mack and Nellie Hennessey of Housack Falls, who have been visiting Miss Ella Murray, have returned home.

First class postmaster examination is being held at the postoffice today. Applicants are present from eighty Dorset and Peru.

All members of St. Francis de Sales choir are requested to be present at ten o'clock mass Sunday morning prepared to sing high mass.

Among the new books are the library at the following:—"Rabindranath Tagore" by Rhys, "World for Sale" by Gilbert Parker, "Mr. Britling Sees It Through" by H. G. Wells, "Lady Constance" by Mrs. Humphrey Ward and Oscar Wilde's Poems.

Bennington people in search of clothing, shoes and furnishings for men, women and children will find an exceptionally large stock at the Joe Levin store, corner of North and River streets. The goods are all new and the prices are low. Adv.

Mrs. William Phalen of Main street was very pleasantly surprised Thursday evening when several of her friends gathered to give her a farewell party. Singing and music was enjoyed throughout the evening and refreshments were served. The guests presented her with a cut glass dish, and departed at a late hour with her joy and happiness as she goes.

More than a quarter of a million dollars is to be spent in making alterations and enlargements at the Greylock hotel in Williamstown, according to a statement made today to The Herald by Henry N. Teague, lessee and one of the owners of the property, and the work will be begun this fall so as to have part of the new building ready for occupancy next spring when the hotel will be opened. In order that these changes may be made the hotel will be closed on November 7. The changes which will be made in the hotel building proper will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000. A new dining room, which will seat about 300 persons, will be built. 50 rooms will be added, there will be new quarters for the hotel help and chauffeurs and a new modern fire-proof kitchen which will be second to none in the country. —North Adams Herald.

We cannot guarantee that our annuitants never worry but we are sure that they have less cause than most people, for we have guaranteed them an income as long as they live. The authors of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for "Set of Testimonials."

You Can't Tell Me Nuthin'

"You can't tell me nuthin'," the pit boss says.
"You can't tell me nuthin' a-tall, I don't need advice from no hunkies like you—"

An' if I do need it I'll call; I guess I kin tend to my business o. k. Without no attention to nuthin' you say.

"You can't tell me nuthin'," the pit boss, he says;
"I reckon I'm on to my job.

An' I'll thank you to keep your suggestions to home, You mis'er'ble ignorant slob; I haven't no time for to hear your ideas;

I guess I'm the boss an' I'll do what I please."

Yes, that was the way that the pit boss come back
When I made a suggestion, polite;

But the Super he heard what the pit boss had said
An' he wasn't contented—not quite.

"Hold there," he says, when the pit boss got through.
"I guess I'll horn in with a brief word or two."

"They can't tell you nuthin'," the Super repeats;
"Then Lord help you, brother," says he.

"For the guy who imagines he's knowin' it all
An' it's quite the right pit boss for me.

If you can't learn nuthin' from no other man,
I'll go get a feller for pit boss who can."

"We haven't no use fer the feller," he says,
That thinks he has knowledge to burn.

Who secums all suggestions that comes from his men
An' won't ever listen an' learn.

They can't tell you nuthin'—them words makes no freed,
An' I'll tell you something right now—

you are fired!"
